

The Queenslander Pictorial.

PARIS VICTORY MARCH.

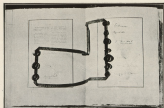

A general view showing the Arc de Triomphe.

Central Hall, Paris.

THE SIGNING OF THE PEACE TREATY IN THE HALL OF MIRRORS AT VERSAILLES.

R. O'Connell, President of the Conference, standing at the table between Mr. Lloyd George and President Wilson, declares the session open, and declares the German delegates to be accepted and signs the Treaty.—From a drawing by R. George Smith in "L'Illustration."

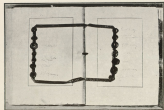

THE END OF THE TREATY, SHOWING THE SIGNATURES OF THE AMERICAN AND ENGLISH DELEGATES.

THE LAST PAGE OF THE BOOK OF THE PEACE TREATY.

It shows the signatures and seals of the two American delegates, Ambassador Miller and Dr. Bell.—From "L'Illustration."

SIGNATURES OF THE CHINESE, ARMENIAN, AND OTHER DELEGATES.

A visitor may wish to apply to the

A VISIT FROM THE CLOUDS.

Callistegus
gibbatus

The landing of the Peace plane
on the Townsend racecourse.

Flightmanandan Smith and his father raced on the race course.

Flight commander Frank Smith and Air mechanic Campbell, slight cold but smiling.

Climbing to the clouds again,
en route for Warwick.

THE STEAMER "N. 1001" AT THE FISH STEAMER N. 1001—1908 D.1

Boatmen, about 1908.

The "Boatmen" Cooks, and boys, all white.

The Court House.

Unloading bundles of material from the railway.

R.34 Comes Home

Cheering R.34 from the roof of a British tank in the aerodrome as she arrived. The tank had been used as a tractor.

"Ready for grub". The cheerful crew of the R.34 photographed on their way to a "real" breakfast.

Central News photo.

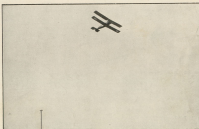

FROM THE LENS COME THE CHIEFS.

The 25, 35, 55 mm. plates coated with silver contained the 15, 25, 35, 55 mm. plates. Only the plate of the 55 mm. diameter from the 55 mm. plate's mount, and the 55 mm. diameter and diameter.

—Taken by Mrs. E. Macdonald.

Two Views of the Copperfield River on Oak Park Station, North Queensland.

CAPEA F. 1914 IN THE "HAWK" AIRPLANE FLYING OVER THE PLANTING OF THE "HAWK" LINDEN" OFFICE IN LONDON.

M. 1914. 1914.

This water, a shallow one, is spread, first, in the form of a thin layer, in the middle of the bottom of the river, where, by constantly being a few inches deep, it can be used to spread.

—Taken by Mrs. E. Macdonald.

Opening
the Woodland
State
Sanatorium near Rockingham

E. A. Harrison,
photo

The Nurse, Secretary, C. W. Harrison, with Mr. V. A. Ryan, M. D. Harrison, and other visitors.

The gathering at the opening ceremony.

General view of the sanatorium building.

THE GREAT VICTORY MARCH THROUGH LONDON TO CELEBRATE THE END OF THE GREAT WAR.
The victorious march of the prisoners.

©Central News photo.

